A-LEVEL/GCSE PSYCHOLOGY CPD: FEEDBACK ON EXAMINATIONS AND HOW TO GET THE TOP GRADES / IMPROVE ALL STUDENTS

BRIEF COURSE OUTLINE

Teachers and students always want to improve. To do this, it is essential to maximise time and resources for A-Level Psychology. This course allows you to discuss everything you need about how to answer questions, mark effectively, break down AO1, AO2 and AO3. This course can be delivered as Teacher CPD or as Student Workshops. It is an excellent opportunity for you or your students to absorb the necessary examination skills from someone who has supervised the marking of thousands of candidates' exams.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is suitable for all teachers, trainees, NQT's, new and experienced teachers, heads of departments and heads of faculties.

PROGRAMME DETAILS

- Gain increased understanding of the assessment demands for either GCSE or A-Level from a senior examiners perspective. Know what examiners want from AO1, AO2 and AO3 questions. What do you really need to gain full marks in AO3 evaluation questions?

- Complete a range of marking of to improve your own feedback to students using examiner insight and teaching ideas to raise student attainment. Learners leave motivated and prepared for the exam.

- Learn how to effectively turn your assessment of students into a strong, productive element of your teaching by using galavanised resources and key feedback from recent examinations to maximise your classroom. Incorporate, more examination techniques into your regular day-to-day delivery so it becomes second nature for everybody.

METHOD OF DELIVERY

Self-assessment; Group and Individual examination script marking; exposure to challenge; discussion and deconstruction of examination reports

COURSE FACILITATOR

The course is delivered by Ali Abbas, an ex Principal Examiner with 13 years' experience in writing Psychology examination papers and awarding grades to students. He has been providing staff INSET to schools and colleges nationally, in the UK since 2003 and was part of the team that wrote the current AQA and Edexcel A level specifications.

TESTIMONIALS

See interactive references on www.passareuk.com